ASSASSIN'S SHOT HASTENED DEATH STROKE OF GAYNOR

The New Mayor of New York, Taken at His Desk To-Day

Remarkable Story of Tammany's Willingness to Nominate Him Mayor Told to James Creelman Before He Sailed.

James Creelman, a close personal friend, had a long talk with Mayor Gaynor just before the Baltic sailed. In the Mail this afternoon he gives an interview recalling startling statements made by the Mayor, as follows: "I asked him whether it was true that Mr. Murphy, the Tammany leader, had some time ago sent word to him that unless he dismissed Police Commissioner Waldo his name would not be considered for Mayor again.

"'Yes,' he said, 'it is true. I received that message several times, and, of course, I paid no attention to it whatever. I have known for a long time that the Murphy crowd did not want to renominate me, and that they would not renominate me unless general public opinion forced did about it. I was not their kind of a man. I was not their kind of a Mayor. They were not able to get anything out of me in the way of Heart Gave Out as Result of the Wound Received on His Ill-Fated Attempt to Take an Ocean Voyage Three Years Ago, and He Passed Away at 1 o'Clock Yesterday Afternoon.

NEWS SENT BY WIRELESS BY SON, WHO WAS ABOARD

Hours of Delay Over Delivery of the Intelligence to Mayor's Secretary Adamson - Death Places City Government in the Hands of Ardolph L. Kline, Republican.

Mayor William J. Gaynor died of heart fallure on board the White Star liner Baltic at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was sixty-two years

The news of Mayor Gaynor's death was sent to New York by winless from the ship and cable from Ireland by Rufus W. Gaynor, the son and travelling companion of the Mayor. The message, addressed to Robert Adamson, the Mayor's secretary, was received this morning, and

"Father died Wednesday at 1 o'cleck. Death due to heart failure. Notify mother. R. W. GAYNOR."

The Baltic, which left New York with the Mayor as a passenger last Thursday, was about 500 miles off the Irish coast at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. It is expected by the White Star Line officials that the ship will reach Oueenstown at about 4 o'clock to-BODY DUE ON LUSITANIA SEPT. 19.

The Mayor's body, according to cablegrams received from Rufus Gaynor, this afternoon by Secretary Adamson and Dock Commissioner R. A. C. Smith, will be brought home on the Cunard liner Lusitants. which will reach New York on the morning of Friday, Sept. 19. The Lusitania sails from Liverpool on Saturday.

It had been planned to transfer the body of the Mayor from the Baltic to the White Star liner Cedric in Queenstown early to-morrow. But the Baltic has been delayed by storms and will probably not reach Queenstown until after the Cedric has left.

The Mayor's body will be taken ashore to await the Luditania, which, while it is scheduled to stop only for the mails outside Queenstown Harbor, will be held for the purpose of acting as a funeral ship for the late executive of the city of New York. There will be no delay by this plan, as the Lustrania is a much faster vessel than the Cedric, and is due at Sandy Hook before the latter liner.

It has been tentatively arranged to hold the funeral of the Mayor a cek from next Monday. The date has not been definitely fixed.

Mrs. Gaynor and her daughters, who are at the Gaynor country nome at St. James, L. I., were notified of the Mayor's death by Mr.

HIS FAMILY HAD BEEN APPREHENSIVE.

They had been apprehensive about the Mayor's condition, for he was very ill and weak when he sailed, but the news of his death was no less

Gen. Ardolph L. Kline, who succeeded John Purroy Mitchel as President of the Board of Aldermen and became Acting Mayor when Mayor Gaynor sailed for Europe, is now Mayor of New York, with full powers. tte will serve until Dec. 31.

Mayor Kline is a Republican. He was leader of the Republican-Fusion majority in the Board of Aldermen and Vice-Chairman by virtue of that designation. When Mr. Mitchel resigned to take the position of Collector of the Port Gen. Kline succeeded to the office of President of the Board of Aldermen, and the Charter provides that in the case of the death of the Mayor the President of the Board of Aldermen succeeds to Mayor Kilne reached the City Hall at 11 o'clock. He went into his office and talked with Secretary Adamson and Dock Commissioner Smith, who had hurried to the City Hall as soon as he received news of the death of Mayor Gaynor.

The only act of Mayor Kline of moment since Mayor Gaynor sailed a week ago was the granting of numerous all-night licenses to liquor dealthem to do it. Perhaps I ought not to blame them for feeling as they ers at Coney Isand for the period covered by the Mardi Gras. Mayor Gaynor refused to issue such licenses a year ago.

> The death of the Mayor was indirectly caused by the bullet which James J. Gallagher, a lunatic, fired into his neck on board the Kaher
